

PROPERTY
OF THE
STATE OF MARYLAND

ARTICLE 24.

WORCESTER COUNTY.*

	Sections		Sections
Almshouse.....	1-6	Ocean City Bridge.....	158
Berlin.....	7-43	Ocean City School Building....	159
Birds and Game.....		Orphans' Court	160-161
Camp Meetings	44	Oysters and Clams	162-186
Circuit Court	45-55	Pocomoke Bridge	187-189
Court Stenographer	48-50	Pocomoke City	190-227
Clerk.....	51	Pocomoke River	228-229
Crier and Bailiffs.....	52	Pocomoke River Commissioners.	230
Deeds.....	53-55	Publication of Local Laws.....	231
County Commissioners	56-68	Railroad Crossings	232-233
Cruelty to Animals	69	Records Burned	234-241
Deeds and Mortgages.....	70	Register of Wills	242
Drainage.....	71-76	Revenue and Taxes	243-277
Election Districts	77-78	Roads.....	278-289
Fire Companies	79-80	Prison Labor	286-289
Fish.....		Sheep.....	290-292
Foxes.....	81-85	Sheriff.....	293-294
Jurors.....	86-91	Snow Hill	295-331
Justices of the Peace and Con-		Light Plant	327-331
stables	92-100	Stallions.....	332-334
Land Records	101-102	State's Attorney	335-336
Landlord and Tenant.....	103	Trespass.....	337-340
Licenses.....	104-105	Vagabonds.....	341-342
Liquor and Intoxicating Drinks.	106-124	Wild Fowl
Navigation.....	125-133	Witnesses.....	343-344
Ocean City	134-157	Wreckmaster.....	345-357

ALMSHOUSE.

1910, ch. 396. 1920 Code, sec. 1.

1. The title to and control of all real, personal and mixed property of every character and description which has heretofore been in "The Trustees of the Poor of Worcester County" shall vest in the County Commissioners of Worcester County, a corporate body, and the said County Commissioners of Worcester County shall have complete control, supervision and management of all said property and of all matters which have heretofore been under the control, supervision and management of the said "The Trustees of the Poor of Worcester County."

*The editor has followed the 1920 codification of the Public Local Laws of Worcester County by John W. Staton, Esq., which was legalized by ch. 304 of the Acts of 1920. The thanks of the editor are due Mr. Staton for permission to use his codification in preparing this edition of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland.